

Chequelle Brown's bio:

Chequelle Brown is a Macon, GA native, who is multi-skilled in all things Media and Entertainment. Chequelle has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications from Columbus State University and a Masters in Communication from Queen's University of Charlotte. Chequelle was able to begin her career in Media in Columbus, GA, while interning for KKO Marketing from 2014-2018. During Chequelle's tenure with KKO Marketing, she learned and developed the skill of social media marketing, radio/podcasting, and also sharpened her skills as a journalist. Through this opportunity, Chequelle also worked as an Event Coordinator and as a mainstream radio personality. Chequelle now resides in Charlotte, NC as a Media Correspondent for Level 21 TV and is thrilled to be a part of KKO Marketing Team again in 2021.
